St. Louis Post-Dispatch (updated) - Army Corps of Engineers to work on burning Bridgeton Landfill - 3/22/14 - The Army Corps of Engineers will help build an isolation barrier between an underground fire at the Bridgeton landfill and radioactive materials in the adjacent West Lake Landfill, according to the Environmental Protection Agency. http://www.stltoday.com/news/local/metro/army-corps-of-engineers-to-work-on-burning-bridgeton-landfill/article_c914db0e-0ee4-50ca-a7a2-53c565df2286.html

Associated Press (updated) - EPA leader says agency moving forward on concerns at troubled St. Louis Co. landfill - 3/21/14 - The regional head of the Environmental Protection Agency on Friday assured Missouri's attorney general that progress is being made on remediation of a St. Louis County landfill, where underground smoldering is occurring just a few hundred yards from buried nuclear waste. <http://www.greenfieldreporter.com/view/story/ff2f532a7dc140f1a1946db043a13eeb/MO--Bridgeton-Landfill>

Farm Forum - Rep. Terry: The "E" in the EPA shouldn't stand for espionage - 3/21/14 - As stewards of our land, American farmers, ranchers, livestock and poultry producers are leading the way on conservation. The EPA shouldn't be complicit in espionage on hard working Americans. We already have another government agency doing that. http://www.farmforum.net/news/columnists/rep-terry-the-e-in-the-epa-shouldn-t-stand/article_525fbe17-66d7-542e-944f-611ddba02bf1.html

Associated Press - Drones have a future in farming - 3/22/14 - Drones are quickly moving from the battlefield to the farmer's field — on the verge of helping growers oversee millions of acres throughout rural America and saving them big money in the process. <http://dmreg.co/1eBWqo3>

Associated Press - Crews try to contain oil spill in Galveston Bay - 3/22/14 - A barge carrying nearly a million gallons of especially thick, sticky oil collided with a ship in Galveston Bay on Saturday, leaking an unknown amount of the fuel into the popular bird habitat as the peak of the migratory shorebird season was approaching. <http://www.kansascity.com/2014/03/22/4908954/barge-leaking-oil-in-galveston.html>

New York Times - As Listener and Saleswoman, E.P.A. Chief Takes to the Road for Climate Rules - 3/21/14 - Gina McCarthy was deep in enemy territory. Here on this wind-whipped prairie pocked with strip mines, Ms. McCarthy, the administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, faced 20 coal miners, union workers and local politicians deeply suspicious of the new climate change regulations she had come to pitch. <http://www.nytimes.com/2014/03/22/us/as-listener-and-saleswoman-epa-chief-takes-to-the-road-for-climate-rules.html>

Breitbart News/Washington Times - Charles Hurt: EPA Using Satellites, Drones to Fine, Bankrupt Citizens - 3/22/14 - The Nuclear Option columnist for the Washington Times and Breitbart News, and Drudge Report editor Charles Hurt told Breitbart News Saturday that 5,000 Environmental Protection Agency hypocrites ensconce themselves in an urban domicile in DC, know nothing about freedom-loving Americans, and are polluting the Chesapeake Bay in a particularly nasty way. <http://www.breitbart.com/Big-Journalism/2014/03/22/NuclearOptions-Charles-Hurt-Says-EPA-Using-Satellites-and-Drones>
